

two (2) far right lanes.

9-21-8-14. Following too close.

A person who drives a motor vehicle may not follow another vehicle more closely than is reasonable and prudent, having due regard for the speed of both vehicles, the time interval between vehicles, and the condition of the highway.

9-21-8-15. Truck following another truck too close.

Except when overtaking and passing, a person who drives a motor truck, motor truck drawing another vehicle, or tractor-trailer combination, when traveling upon a roadway outside of a business or residence district or upon a roadway that is part of the interstate highway system, whether within or without a business or residence district, may not follow within three hundred (300) feet of another motor truck, motor truck drawing another vehicle, or a tractor-trailer combination.

9-21-8-16. Following too close in caravan.

(a) This section does not apply to funeral or marching band processions.

(b) Motor vehicles being driven upon a roadway outside of a business or residence district in a caravan or motorcade, whether or not towing other vehicles, must be operated to allow sufficient space between each vehicle or combination of vehicles to enable another vehicle to enter and occupy the space without danger.

9-21-8-17. Staying to right; crossing barrier.

Whenever a highway has been divided into two (2) roadways by:

- (1) Leaving an intervening space;
- (2) A physical barrier; or
- (3) A clearly indicated dividing section to impede vehicular traffic;

a vehicle shall be driven only upon the right-hand roadway. A vehicle may not be driven over, across, or within a dividing space, barrier, or section, except through an opening in the physical barrier, diving section, or space or at a crossover or an intersection established by public authority.

9-21-8-18. Driving onto or from limited access facility.

A person may not drive a vehicle onto or from a limited access facility except at entrances and exits that are established by the public authority in control of the roadway.

9-21-8-19. Entering or exiting freeway; U turns on freeway.

A person may not drive a vehicle onto or from a freeway or the interstate highway system except at entrances and exits that are established by the public authority in control of the highway. Whenever special crossovers between the main roadways of a freeway or the interstate highway system are provided for emergency vehicles or maintenance equipment only, the freeway or interstate highway system shall be posted prohibiting "U" turns. A person who drives a vehicle, except an emergency vehicle or maintenance equipment, may not use the crossovers or make a "U" turn anywhere on the freeway or interstate highway system.

9-21-8-20. Freeways; local ordinances prohibiting bicycles, etc. [effective January 1, 2015].

The Indiana department of transportation may be resolution or order entered in its minutes, and local authorities may by ordinance, with respect to any freeway or interstate highway system under their respective jurisdictions, prohibit the use of a highway by pedestrians, bicycles, or other non-motorized traffic or by a person operating a motor driven cycle. The Indiana department of transportation or the local authority adopting a prohibiting regulation shall erect and maintain official signs on the freeway or interstate highway system on which the regulations are applicable. If signs are erected, a person may not disobey the restrictions stated on the signs.

9-21-8-21. Turning at intersection.

(a) A person who drives a vehicle intending to turn at an intersection must do the following:

- (1) Make both the approach for a right turn and a right turn as close as practical to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway.
- (2) Make an approach for a left turn in that part of the right half of the roadway nearest the center line of the roadway. After entering the intersection, the person who drives a vehicle must make the left
